Approved For Release 2003/09/03: CIA-RDP80-00809A000700220111-9

MAR 1952 51-46

25X1 RESTRICTED CLASSIFICATION CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY 25X1 25X1 COUNTRY China SUBJECT Chinese Annotated Bibliography, Item 44 (Economic) HÔW DATE DIST. 21 Apr 1953 PUBLISHED Book WHERE PUBLISHED Hong Kong NO. OF PAGES 1 DATE PUBLISHED 1950 SUPPLEMENT TO LANGUAGE Chinese REPORT NO. UNITED STATES, BITHIN THEMESHING OF TITLE IS SECTIONS 7 ID 784, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVE Ition of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person i THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 25X1

Title: Chinese Communist Land Reform and the Land-Reform Problem

Author: Chin I-hung (全一鴻)

Publisher: Freedom Press, Kowloon, Hong Kong, 1950

Sponsor or

Issuing Authority: None indicated

No Pages: 162

Language: Chinese

Repository and Catalogue No: Harvard-Yenching Library 4292.78/8113

Area of Coverage: China

Subjects Covered: General government policies on agriculture, land reform, and socialization of agriculture.

Scholarship Evaluation: Scholarly; critical of both CCP and KMT

Review:

Book is divided into three sections, two of which are devoted to criticism of both the Chinese Communist and KMT land-reform programs. The third section proposes a new policy and method of land reform. Author suggests that peasants be permitted to retain land after the reorganization of the mainland.

Discusses Communist land reform during period of the Kiangsi Soviet, the Comintern, World War II, and the postliberation period. G'ves critique of Chinese Communist Party land reform and law. Criticizes KMT land reform in Chekiang and Fukien provinces.

- E N D -

- 1 -

	CLASSIFICATION	RESTRICTED
STATE X NAVY	X NSRB	DISTRIBUTION
ARMY X AIR	X FBI		i

